  - ii Hutton Cranswick Parish Council: Request to ERYC to reduce speed limit from 60mph to 40mph from the junction of Meggison's Turnpike/Station Road, Cranswick to the parish boundary with Skerne. Agreed: to support the request. Proposed Coun Tite, seconded Coun Harrison.

- iii Hutton Cranswick Parish Council: opening allotments to residents of neighbouring parishes. Put an item in the newsletter.
- iv ERNLLCA: HM Government Dept for Communities and Local Government: Transparency code for smaller authorities to come into effect April 1 2015. The clerk would go through the requirement to ensure the parish council complies.
- v Discuss Driffield Canal Partnership: official opening of new footpath on April 26, 1-4pm. Agreed: to support this event in principle; several councillors offered help on the day. The chairman had been invited to perform the opening ceremony.
- vi ERYC Community Partnership: National spring clean information. This would take place on March 21. Agreed: to hold a spring clean session on April 11 prior to the footpath opening. The clerk to e-mail the national organisers to see if a pack could be available.
- vii John Hawley: Breach between Nafferton beck and dyke upstream of Carr Lane Bridge. Coun Stockwell said the Environment Agency was to fill the breaches north of Carr Lane, Bridge. The party had looked at the weed situation south of Carr Lane Bridge. Solutions to the weed cutting problem were being explored by use of the European Water Framework Directive..

10 Matters requested by councillors

- i Memorial plaque for late councillor Bryan Hills. Agreed: that a small memorial in the Wansford Lock area was appropriate given Bryan's generosity and the extent of his community work. Members expressed a willingness to contribute individually to the fund and small donations would be requested in the forthcoming newsletter.
- 11 Highways: There was a large pothole opposite the bungalow in Driffield Road, Wansford; the parapet of Carr Lane bridge had moved significantly; the blackthorn on Skerne Road need cutting back. Agreed: the clerk to write to Dave England with these concerns.
- 12
- 13 Other correspondence East Riding News, ERNLLCA newsletters. Noted.
- 14 To receive reports from representatives: None. Coun Lambie asked that the Nafferton Feoffees be properly thanked for the enhancement scheme grant.
- 15 Date of next meeting: The annual meeting on Tuesday May 19 2015 at 7.30pm.
